

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Jessica Nichole Pleasant,
Appellant,

v.

Gary Ray Pleasant, Jr.,
Appellee.

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-16-10338CI

Supreme Court No. S-17688

Order

Motion for Relief from Final Judgment

Date of Order: 4/20/2020

Having considered Appellant's motion under Alaska Civil Rule 60(b) to set aside the judgment entered by the superior court, which judgment is the subject of this appeal, as well as Appellee's opposition to the motion,

IT IS ORDERED: The motion is DENIED. Civil Rule 60(b) is a rule intended for a party to seek relief directly from the superior court, not this court; if Appellant wishes to litigate whether the judgment should be set aside under Civil Rule 60(b), Appellant needs to do so in the superior court. This court will consider the superior court's judgment in the normal course based on the parties' appellate arguments and the record before the superior court when the superior court issued its judgment.

Entered at the direction of an individual justice.

Clerk of the Appellate Courts
